

<What is The most Category that families love to watch ? >

From the figure we found that the most category has been rented is Animation where the total rental count is 1161, that means family are like to watch animation movies.

<in each quartile, what was the most category has been rented? >

From the figure we see that:

In the First quartile, animation movies has the maximum rental counts.

In the Second quartile, children has the maximum rental counts.

In the Third quartile, Family movies has the maximum rental counts.

And finally the Fourth quartile, family and animation have the maximum rental counts.

< comparing between the two stores in their count of rental orders during every month for all the years >

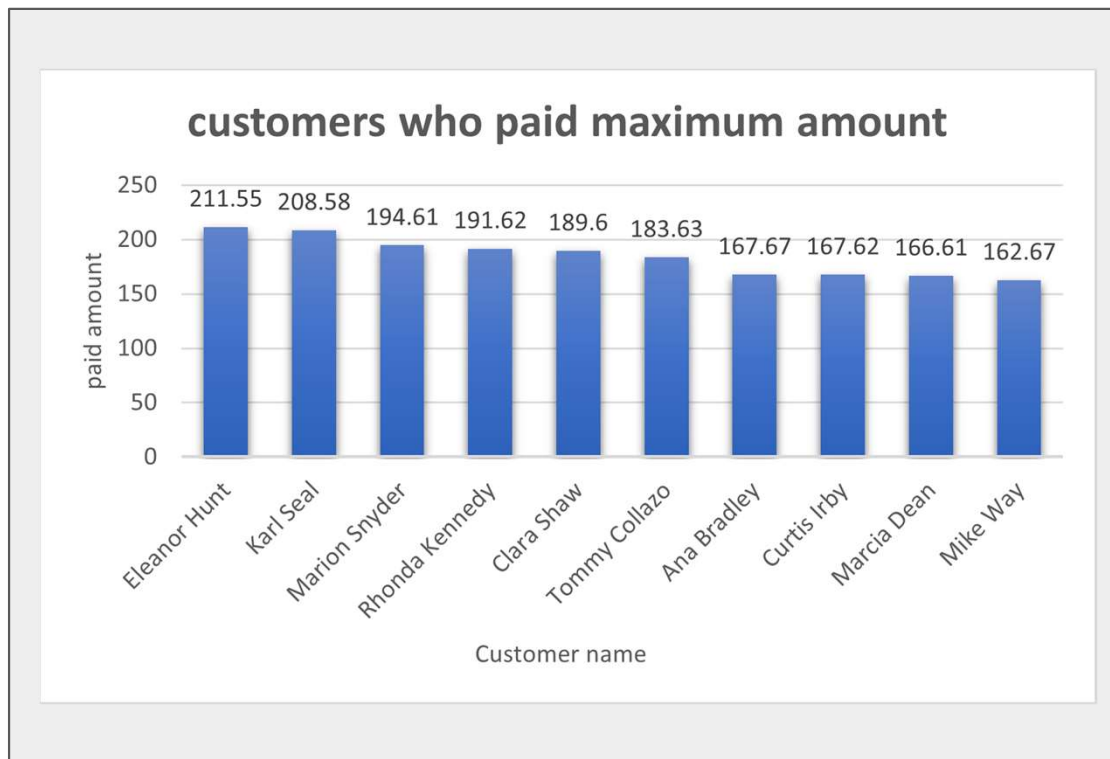

From the figure we can see that the rental count of the two stores are slightly similar.

Starting with 2005-May, store two has more rental count, in the next month 2005-June store one has the most rental count.

In 2005-7 store two has the most rental count and in this month they both reached to the maximum rental counts

Unfortunately after a few months their rental have been decreased.

<Who is the customer who has the maximum paid amount ? >

From the figure we conclude that Eleanor Hunt has paid the maximum amount of money for the dvd rental stores